 Creating God,

 as we together share in thanks and giving.

 give us a harvest of peace sown in justice,
 that everyone may have daily bread.

News about the Interregnum

I have met with the Leadership Team at Immanuel church to sort out some things during the Interregnum, mainly to talk about who would be covering Sunday morning services and Wednesday services. I thought you would appreciate knowing what's going to happen. So here it is!

Sunday 10.00 am service: Helen and Sandra will be on the rota regularly. I have also spoken to two priests, Revd John Richards and Revd Canon Rob Morris who have each offered to cover one Sunday a month on the rota. The Worship Committee will cover most of the All Age Worship Services.

Sunday 8.00 am BCP will be offered on the fourth Sunday of the month. The date will go on the pew sheet as required.

Wednesday 9.30 am Holy Communion: This service will be suspended during the Interregnum.

I know how much you will all appreciate the generosity of people wanting to help out during the Interregnum; two fine retired priests, as well as Helen's priestly ministry, Sandra's Readers ministry and the gifts of those on the Worship Committee. Immanuel is very fortunate indeed!

Looking ahead, in November the Archdeacon, Hayward Osborne will meet with the Church Wardens and the PCC to discuss the Interregnum.

And finally Sue Lane (David's wife!) will continue to clean the church but will also be the Church Hall Booking Secretary and will be a member of the Church Hall Committee with Christine and Ian who both do a lot of work behind the scenes regarding the hall as well as carrying a lot of responsibility in the church.

Revd Rebecca.
