Father, we stand alongside all who are hurting in body, mind or spirit; all who need courage, support or practical help. Bring them your peace in their pain, your strength in their weakness and your comfort in their sadness. Amen.

A Big Thank you

Thank you so much for all your cards and gifts which we received on our last Sunday with you and for everyone who had worked so hard to produce a wonderful feast of food.

It was an emotional day but also a great day of celebrating all God has given us over my time here. I know some of you want to have my address. I've given it to Christine and she will give it to you direct.

So may God bless you Immanuel for each one of you are the beloved of God and you will always remain in my heart, love and indeed prayers. God speed to you all.

Revd Rebecca and Brian

Revd. Rebecca

In the hall after Rebecca's last service from the money collected by the congregation, Revd. Rebecca was presented with a side table carved from a single piece of wood together with a framed photograph of Immanuel Church. The balance of the money collected was given to Rebecca by cheque.

Many thanks to everyone who gave so generously. You will see from the note received from Rebecca and Brian how grateful they were for the gifts together with the love and support of the congregation.

Richard and Valerie

Revd. Rebecca's Institution - Tuesday 31st October

The coach leaves Immanuel at 1.30pm which allows plenty of time to travel north to Southport. The service starts at 7.30pm. The coach will leave Southport at no later than 10.00pm for the return journey.

The cost for the coach is £5.00. If you have signed to travel on the coach, please arrange to pay your money to Christine. Thank you.

Our Future is in Your Hands

It is now 3 years since our last Stewardship campaign, and it is really important that we now plan our budget and finances for the next three years. We have invited Amanda Holden from the Birmingham Diocese to come and talk to us all next Sunday, 22nd October. Do please try and be there.
