The Poppy Appeal 2017

Poppies are available for you to buy. There are also pencils and rubbers in support of the Royal British Legion.

The Royal British Legion is asking the nation to Rethink Remembrance by recognising the sacrifices made by the Armed Forces community, past and present.

By wearing a poppy, you aren't just remembering the fallen: you're supporting a new generation of veterans and Service personnel that need our support.

Please place your donations in the red collection box which will be donated to the Royal British Legion Poppy Appeal 2017.

Thank You.

Remembrance

As part of our Remembrance events, on Friday 10th November, the children and staff from Hollywood School assembled on the grass at the front of church. A group of children read a poem, and after the 2 minutes silence two children read the famous words "They shall grow not old..." from the poem by Laurence Binyon. A further group of children then placed crosses by the World War 2 cross. On each small cross was the name of a someone from this area who lost his life in World War 2.

We will remember them.
